

Thank you for riding rabbittransit!

To increase ease of travel, we are currently providing customers with a portable grocery cart, based on need. rabbittransit does not accept any liability for claims or injury arising from the use of this cart.

Carts are being provided as a courtesy to specific customers who have completed an application and are provided with a cart. If you should receive a cart, when you no longer need the cart, it should be returned to your local rabbittransit office, so that it can be repurposed for another rider in need. See rabbittransit.org for a list of locations.

Please fill out the application to be considered to receive a grocery cart.
