rabbittransit Celebrates Try Transit Month for September

York, PA – rabbittransit celebrates September as Try Transit Month. Delivering more than 1.5 million trips a year in the region, rabbittransit offers public transportation as a resource for the community.

Here are 10 Try Transit highlights that area residents might not be aware of:

#1: Calling all Commuters: rabbittransit offers weekday service, known as rabbitEXPRESS, between York and Harrisburg, York and Northern Maryland and between Gettysburg and Harrisburg.

#2: Seniors Ride Free: Thanks to the Pennsylvania Lottery, registered seniors over the age 65 ride fixed route and rabbitEXPRESS buses for free.

#3: Take a Virtual Tour: Those interested in rabbitEXPRESS can take a 360 degree tour inside the bus at one of the park and ride locations at: <http://www.rabbittransit.org/Schedules/rabbitEXPRESS360Tour.aspx>.

#4: Bikeshare to Bus Stop: Residents not close to a bus stop can connect with a bicycle or rent a Zagster bike to connect at <http://bike.zagster.com/yorkcitypa/>.

#5: Accessible Transportation: Loved ones with limited mobility can utilize the Shared Ride Paratransit service, which offers door-to-door service from home. All vehicles are ADA accessible for wheelchairs or other mobility devices.

#6: Free WiFi: WiFi is available onboard rabbitEXPRESS vehicles to make commute time productive.

#7: Budget Bargain: Unlimited rides for $42 for a month. Stretch household dollars farther.

#8: Food Friendly: GIANT Food Stores generously sponsors free transportation through rabbittransit to two of its locations. <http://www.rabbittransit.org/Schedules/YorkFixedRoute/GIANTShuttles.aspx>.

#9 Try Transit Contest: Those who log transit trips can be entered to win a Kindle Fire or two Amtrak coach class tickets on the Amtrak Keystone Service (valid from Harrisburg to New York City) through Commuter Services of Pennsylvania - <http://pacommuterservices.org>.

#10: Tech Tools: See when a bus arrives in real time at <http://realtime.rabbittransit.org/infopoint/>.
